Step Into the Roaring '20s at The Great Gatsby Gala – A Fundraiser for the Packard Proving Grounds

Shelby Township, MI – Step back into the Roaring '20s for a night of glamour, dancing, and history at the Great Gatsby Gala at the Packard Proving Grounds on Friday, April 5, 2024, at 6:00 PM! This exciting event features a live DJ, 1920s-inspired cocktails, a gourmet dinner, and exclusive historical tours of this iconic automotive landmark. Guests will also have the chance to see stunning Packard cars up close.

The evening's Master of Ceremonies is Roop Raj from Fox 2 News, bringing extra energy to a night filled with fun and philanthropy. This fundraiser directly supports the Packard Motor Car Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, dedicated to preserving and restoring the historic Packard Proving Grounds. Funds raised will go toward several critical restoration projects, ensuring this historic site continues to educate and inspire for generations to come.

"The Great Gatsby Gala is a night of fun and history, with all proceeds supporting the restoration of the Packard Proving Grounds," said Jeannine Morris, Event Organizer. Every ticket helps preserve this incredible site for future generations."

Tickets are $100 per person, or gather your friends and buy a table for an unforgettable evening! With amazing generous vendors, lively entertainment, and an incredible atmosphere, this is an event you won't want to miss.

Join us for a night to remember—where history, elegance, and excitement come together for a great cause!
